

KELLEIGH M. O'NEILL, M.S., ATC

CLINICAL WORK EXPERIENCE

Chinese Olympic Committee – Team China

Beijing, China

Athletic Trainer

May 31, 2018 – November 15, 2018

- Provide care for Endurance Track Cycling National Team Members with emphasis on injury rehabilitation.
- Teach coaches, athletes, staff and administrators about the Athletic Training profession.
- Demonstrate creativity in care to overcome limited supply availability.
- Maintain injury and treatment records and submit weekly and monthly reports in a timely manner.
- Collaborate with other performance coaches, strength and conditioning staff and other health care professionals

University of Southern Maine

Portland, ME

Athletic Trainer

August 2019 - Present

August 2014 – June 2018

- Design and implement a program which resulted in decreases in overall injuries and specifically, preventable injuries, over the entire lifecycle of baseball athletes, in collaboration with other health-care professionals
- Oversee PPE screenings and perform emergency care, injury assessment, treatment, and rehabilitation of student athletes
- Provide on-site care during practices and events for Women's Soccer, Men's Ice Hockey, and Baseball, as well as other programs and travel with teams as needed.
- Teach, evaluate, and develop Athletic Training Education Program students in the clinical setting as a preceptor
- Maintain extensive electronic injury records
- Utilize IMPACT for baseline and post-concussion testing.
- Complete supply bidding and ordering of general and capital supplies

University of Maine at Orono

Orono, ME

Athletic Trainer

August 2012 – July 2014

- Performed emergency care, injury assessment, treatment and rehabilitation of student athletes
- Provided practice and event (home and away) coverage for Women's Soccer and Women's Basketball as well as other programs as needed
- Designed and implemented various post-surgical rehabilitation programs
- Acted as liaison with team orthopedics at weekly clinic and reported to other ATC's in timely manner in order to provide efficient and cohesive treatment for student athletes
- Supervised and instructed Athletic Training students as a preceptor
- Assisted in bidding and ordering process for supplies as well as other administrative tasks as assigned
- Updated and expanded upon policies and procedures manual to ensure all were up to date and proper protocol was being followed

University of Oregon

Eugene, OR

Graduate Teaching Fellow – Athletic Training

August 2010 – June 2012

- Evaluated and treated injuries and created individualized rehabilitation programs for athletes
- Provided emergency care, injury assessment, treatment and rehabilitation a variety of athletes
- Documented and maintained up to date injury, treatment and referral records
- Served as lab instructor and coordinator for Injury Tissue and Repair course
- Instructed and certified students in CPR/AED and First Aid for the Lay Responder

OTHER WORK EXPERIENCE

FMC Technologies

Chelmsford, MA

Office Administrator

December 2018 – Present

- Experience with accounts receivable, billing and payroll
- Use of Quickbooks and other programs to track data and generate and utilize reports on personnel and jobs
- Utilize Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel and Adobe

KELLEIGH M. O'NEILL, M.S., ATC

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

University of Southern Maine

Primary Instructor

- SPM 340: Therapeutic Exercise, University of Southern Maine Spring 2017
 - Developed and implemented a curriculum for junior level Athletic Training students
 - Followed CAATE and USM Education Program Requirements
- SPM 440: Manual Therapy, University of Southern Maine Fall 2016
 - Developed a curriculum for senior level Athletic Training Students
 - Provide lecture and lab instruction in various hands on therapeutic techniques
 - Techniques included massage, joint mobilization, Kinesio® Tape, IASTM, and strain counter strain
- SPM 371: Athletic Training Clinic III, University of Southern Maine Spring 2015
 - Instructed students on various topics based upon their clinical experiences

Guest Lecturer

- SPM 440 Manual Therapy: Kinesio Tape Application, University of Southern Maine October 2015

Co-Instructor

- First Aid, CPR, AED for the Lay Responder, University of Southern Maine August 2016

Other

Presenter April 2014

- Professional Presentation: Kinesio Tape Technique, University of Maine
 - Spoke to Certified Athletic Trainers and Athletic Training Students on the benefits and techniques

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

Master's Thesis: Effect of Kinesio Tape Application on Joint Position Sense of the Glenohumeral Joint

- Defense Date: May 23, 2012
- Poster Presentation at Northwest Biomechanics Symposium: May 18-19, 2012

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATIONS & MEMBERSHIPS

- BOC Certified Athletic Trainer: 2000004745
- Licensed ATC in the State of Maine: AT 600
- NPI #: 1205336161
- SFMA Level 1 and Level 2 (Advanced) Certified
- Kinesio® Tape Practitioner: Fundamentals and Advanced (KT1 and KT2) Certified
- Graston Technique®: M1 Certified
- American Red Cross Basic Life Support for Healthcare Providers
- American Red Cross First Aid, CPR, AED for the Lay Responder Instructor
- NATA Member since December 2006

EDUCATION

University of Oregon

Department of Human Physiology

NATA Accredited Post Professional Athletic Training Program

Comprehensive Defense of Clinical Skills (Passed with Honors)

M.S. Athletic Training

Eugene, OR

September 2010 – June 2012

Springfield College

School of Health Physical Education & Recreation

Department of Exercise Science and Sports Studies

B.S. Athletic Training (Magna Cum Laude)

Springfield, MA

September 2006 – May 2010