

UNIVERSITY OF
NEW ENGLAND

INNOVATION FOR A HEALTHIER PLANET

Date: July 25th, 2023
Time: 9:00a – 12:00p
Location: University of New England
Credit: 3 Category A CEU
Fee: Free
Capacity: 100

Athletic Training and EMS: Current Collaborative Concepts

Management of the On Field Spine Injured Athlete

8:40-8:55a	Check In / Registration
8:55-9:00a	Welcome
9:00-10:00a	Current Protocols for Managing the Spine Injured Athlete
10:00-12:00p	Hands on Practice – Equipment Removal / Spine Boarding
	Dennis Russell M.Ed., ATC, CSCS, NRP, CP
	Rick Sirois MS, LAT, ATC, CSCS, CSAC
	Chris Rizzo DAT, LAT, ATC, CSCS
	Neil Carroll LAT, ATC, BSC-O, PES, SNS, FNS

Target Audience: Athletic Trainers, EMS Providers, Physicians, Physical Therapists and other health care professionals involved in acute care

Learning Objectives:

At the end of this lesson, participants will be able to:

- Summarize and apply the current procedures / protocols relating to the management of the spine injured athlete
- Summarize how to successfully cultivate relationships between Athletic Trainers and EMS
- Demonstrate and practice how to successfully remove equipment for contact sport athletes – primarily football

Registration: Please email Rick Sirois by July 21st to secure your seat - ricky.sirois@mainehealth.org

Location: Harold Alfond Forum

Maine Athletic Trainers' Association is approved by the Board of Certification, Inc. to offer continuing education to Certified Athletic Trainers.

Maine EMS CEUs will also be provided

